PROFILE

Skylar is a law student in our Toronto office. She is currently completing her Juris Doctor at Western University.

During her undergraduate co-op studies, she worked in the IP Department of a Law Firm as a Technical Consultant. She also completed three co-op terms at various laboratories as a research assistant at the University of Waterloo and one term as a process engineering co-op at an oil and gas corporation in Fort McMurray.

She previously completed her Bachelor of Science in Nanotechnology Engineering at the University of Waterloo. Skylar is fluent in both English and Korean.
