

Walter Chan

Ottawa
Law Student

CONTACT

WChan@smart-biggar.ca
Phone: 613.232.2486
Fax: 613.232.8440

QUALIFICATIONS

- University of Toronto, B.Sc. (Biological Chemistry), 2008
- Stanford University, Ph.D. (Chemistry), 2016; thesis titled The palladium-catalyzed asymmetric prenylation of oxindoles and its application to the synthesis of natural products
- University of Toronto, J.D., current

PRACTICE AREAS

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

English
Chinese

PROFILE

Walter Chan is a law student in our Ottawa office. He is currently working toward his Juris Doctor from the University of Toronto.

Walter completed his Ph.D. in Chemistry from Stanford University under the supervision of Professor Barry M. Trost. His thesis is titled, "The palladium-catalyzed asymmetric prenylation of oxindoles and its application to the synthesis of natural products."

Walter obtained his B.Sc. in Biological Chemistry from the University of Toronto.

MEDIA

Publications

- "Contrasts and Distinctions: Canadian Patent Law Developments in 2018" (co-author: Walter Chan), IP Update — Canada, January 23, 2019